

COURT-ORDERED COMMUNITY SERVICE APPLICATION

The Animal Friends Humane Society's (AFHS) Court-Ordered Community Service Program provides opportunities for individuals who are 18 years or older that have been ordered to perform community service hours through the judicial system. Individuals applying for Court-Ordered Community Service are assessed on a case-by-case basis to see if they are a good fit for AFHS's program. Court-ordered community service volunteers will not work directly with the animals but may assist with other janitorial tasks and projects as available.

AFHS is open 7 days a week, allowing Community Service volunteers to earn hours any day of the week between 8AM-11AM. Extended hours may be available but only when approved by management.

Please fill out the Court-Ordered Community Service application below and submit to AFHS. You will be contacted once you have been approved to start your hours.

I am aware that the activities that I may participate in during my community service for the Animal Friends Humane Society ("AFHS") may be dangerous and involve risk of injury. I have had an opportunity to ask questions about the nature of the activities as well as the risks to me, and all such questions have been answered to my satisfaction. Despite my understanding of the risks inherent in these activities with AFHS, I wish to participate. My participation is entirely voluntary, and I may elect not to continue at any time. AFHS also has the ability to terminate my activities at any time without cause.

TERMS & CONDITIONS:

I am aware that the activities in which I may participate for the Animal Friends Humane Society ("AFHS") may be dangerous and involve risks of injury. I have had an opportunity to ask questions about the nature of the activities as well as the risks to me, and all such questions have been answered to my satisfaction. Despite my understanding of the risks inherent in these activities with AFHS, I wish to participate in this program. My participation is entirely voluntary, and I may elect not to continue at any time. In consideration of AFHS allowing me to participate in this program, I hereby assume all the risks associated with participation and agree to accept responsibility for any injuries which I sustain.

Release of Liability- I, on behalf of myself, my heirs, executors, representatives, administrators, agents and assigns (collectively the "Releasers") irrevocably and unconditionally fully and forever waive, release and discharge AFHS, its agents, officers, directors, employees, and volunteers in their corporate and personal capacities (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of actions, judgements, rights, fees, damages, debts, obligations, liabilities and expenses (including attorney's fees) of any kind whatsoever, whether known or not, whether a rising out of contract or negligence, that Releasers may have or may ever have against the Released Parties arising out of, or in any way related to my participation in this program at AFHS.

Covenant Not To Sue – I agree not to bring any suit, action, proceeding or claim against AFHS or any other Released Party for any dispute or dissatisfaction arising out of my activities at AFHS.

I have read and understand all of the above terms and conditions of volunteering at AFHS, and I wish for my application to be considered.
